

To avoid plagiarism, source uses must be credited throughout the essay. (in-text citations) and at the end (works cited page).

Please use the following resources to help you integrate sources in your writing, so you do not accidentally plagiarize.

a. Works Cited Page and In-Text Citations:

<https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/>

b. Incorporating Direct Quotations:

http://writingintheie.info/files/INTRODUCING_QUOTATIONS2.pdf

(You must use " " quotation marks to indicate that you are using exact language from the original source.)

c. Paraphrasing:

Overview: <http://writingintheie.info/ParaphraseSource.html>

d. Paraphrasing Strategy:

<http://writingintheie.info/paraphrasepractice.ht>

(You must use " " quotation marks to indicate that you are using exact language from the original

e. Contact me for assistance:

<http://www.writingintheie.info/AskYourProf.html>

Please view our course syllabus for information about the English department's plagiarism policy. Plagiarism is an incredibly serious violation of Chaffey College's "Student Behavior Code." View a related Chaffey College document here:

http://www.chaffey.edu/fac-handbook/c/pdf/Student_Behavior_CodeSH14-15.pdf