

Over, Under, Sideways, Down: Flipped Classroom Strategies and Your Instructional Toolbox

Melissa Utsler (melissa.utsler@chaffey.edu)

This presentation invites participants to incorporate Flipped Classroom strategies into their instructional toolboxes without committing 100% to Flipped Classroom environments. Strategies and resources are provided. Benefits and drawbacks discussed. Participants are warmly welcomed to share their Flipped Classroom adventures, ideas, questions, and/or concerns. The presentation continues at www.writingintheie.info/flippingtheclassroom.html. Please consider contributing to the discussion there as well.

Chaffey College's Faculty Success Center: A two-day seminar at Chaffey College's Faculty Success Center helped me make connections between my current practices and Flipped Classroom models. Chaffey's FSC seminar inspired the focus of this presentation.

Online Tools Chart Information: Developed by Cindy Walker, Faculty Success Center Facilitator and Grace Reotutar, Instructional Specialist, Faculty Success Center and Distance Education Mentor Chart First Distributed at Chaffey College's Faculty Success Center Seminar, Flipping the Classroom
